

HOKE SMITH NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR OF GEORGIA.

Also Endorsed for the Presidency of the United States in 1912.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 1.—Former Governor Hoke Smith "came back" politically today when he was nominated for governor of Georgia and endorsed for the presidency of the United States in 1912 by the state democratic convention. He received 223 votes against 78 for Joseph M. Brown, the present governor, the balloting being under the county unit system.

In his speech accepting the nomination Mr. Smith said:

"The great corporations in Georgia must keep out of politics. They must not be allowed, by hired political agents, to dominate or control legislation or administration."

He announced that he would not be a candidate for re-election.

The platform adopted denounces the recently enacted Payne-Aldrich tariff law "by the operation of which the cost of living has been enormously increased and the burden of the consuming masses made heavier."

BABCOCK PROPERTY AT WESTERY.

Purchased by Trustees of Memorial and Library Association—Insures Important Control of Environment of Memorial Building—George E. Randall In Jail For Begging—Razor Causes Trouble—Black Jack Knocks Out Alexander Grieg.

It is evident that the trustees of the Memorial and Library Association adhere to the plan of controlling adjacent property for protective purposes and for the general beautification of the vicinity, for the trustees have purchased the property of Rev. Edward Babcock, and it is said the town will be given opportunity to get the property as a town hall site. This property is located on the corner of Union and Broad streets, and is the Welch property, with a large frontage on Broad street, and extends along Union street to the fire house, and about the same distance as the Welch property in that street, which extends to the town hall building. This is desirable property and contains the building occupied by the Exchange for Women's work, and the North residence, facing Broad street, and a dwelling in Union street.

The purchase of this property by the trustees may be a factor that may result in a happy solution of the cutting down of Cooke hill and the erection of a new town hall. With the change in ownership of the Babcock property, the claim for damages in connection with the cutting down of the hill from that source is eliminated, and with the fire district and town property aside, the only claimants for damages by reason of change in the present grade of the street are the owners of Hibernian hall, Division 1, A. O. H.

There will be a meeting of the trustees Saturday evening, when the subject will receive consideration.

The plans for Mr. Welch's three-story building, directly opposite the Memorial building, were received on Thursday for the inspection of bidders. The foundations are nearly ready for the superstructure, and the work will be commenced as soon as possible.

George E. Randall, who begged for coin from the delegates to the Hibernian convention, and others, here and there about the town, not excepting ladies in automobiles at rest, and who carried on the illegal practice in such a way as to keep beyond the vision of the day force of the Westery police department, was nabbed in Main street, late Wednesday afternoon, and taken to the police station. Since that time he has been in custody. He was arrested when he was in a condition that bordered on delirium tremens.

When arrested, in the Third district court Thursday morning, he seemed bewildered and a plea of not guilty was entered for him. The testimony was conclusive as to his guilt, however, and he was ordered to do the impossible—pay a fine of $25 and costs, in default of payment he was remanded to the Providence county jail.

Everett A. Jones, a resident of Charlestown, while in an intoxicated state, purloined a coat from Pickard's stable office, which was subsequently recovered, without formal complaint being made by the owner of the garment. Jones was arrested for the theft, and when searched at the police station, a razor was found in one of his pockets. The laws of Rhode Island permit a change in complaint, when a concealed weapon is found on the person of the party arrested. So Jones was charged with carrying a concealed weapon—a razor. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six months in the state workhouse at Cranston.

Local Laconics.
At the annual conference of the Seventh-day Baptist denomination, last week in Salem, W. Va., it was voted to hold the next conference in Westery, in August, 1911. Samuel H. Davis of Westery, being chosen to preside at the next conference.

Edward G. Barnes of Westery, has petitioned the state shell fish commissioner for the lease of three acres of oyster grounds in the salt water pond in Sisson's bay, in the vicinity of Goose Island. Ellisha Hall has applied for two acres in the Pawcatuck river, north of the grounds leased to Ellery Barber.

Unclaimed Letters.
Unclaimed letters at the postoffice are as follows: Miss G. E. Rich, Fred R. Newell, S. M. Keegan, R. Eldredge. Please will be sent to the dead letter office Sept. 5th if unclaimed.

How He Got Good Results.
Over in Hartford, Connecticut, they have a beautiful garden. The superintendent thought out to be of greater interest to the people than to hire a band. Perhaps he preferred a simpler arrangement than that involving a lot of players. He didn't come there to see the beauties of nature nor to admire the park officials' dress, but to see the beauties of nature to rest their souls in the peace and quiet of the place. And the superintendent of the park wondered why and then he wondered how he could bring it about to make them come.

He thought himself of music. But probably he didn't have any right to hire a band. Perhaps he preferred a simpler arrangement than that involving a lot of players.
